

LET'S HAVE SOME FUN WITH

PIRATES

FROM KIDDINGLY

For more such fun activities around stories and books, follow us on

f  /underthatguavatree

AHOY MATEY

We know it's summer break and you're thinking what to do next. Hey, it's summer vacation and vacations are actually meant for nothing! Just eat, sleep, play and chill, ye chill literally too :-).

But wait a minute, how can vacations be complete without some stories and movies too? Aye, aye, you got the hint, right?

So, we are back to make your vacations magical with stories and story-based activities. How about starting your vacation with PIRATES?

Excited, aren't we? So go ahead, enjoy these activities and have fun KIDDINGLY.

-Love,
Kiddingly

FIVE PIARTES STORIES TO READ

Vacations, Books & Pirates! Now, what's there to not love? We had a hard time selecting just 5 books for you as there are many good Pirate books out there. Maybe give these five a try and in case you loved any of these, go ahead on your treasure hunt for more such adventurous stories. Aye, Aye Captain!

While a group of pirates is sailing with a treasure, suddenly a disruption occurred which made a serious obstacle for their journey. So, they decide to bury their treasure. Where did they bury? And what happened next falls the crux of the story.

Suitable for: Below 9 years.

Author: Melinda Long.

Publisher: Harcourt.

A boy and his dog started sailing in search of treasure. After all the challenging obstacles before reaching the end of the quest, there was a surprise waiting in store for them. They realized that Pirate Frank is a girl! And no one could steal her treasure till now. Did they succeed?

Suitable for: Below 9.

Author: Elspeth Graham and Mal Peet.

Publisher: Nosy Crow.

Roger, The Jolly Pirate is an interesting story about the significant design of the pirates Skull and Crossbones Flag, which flew on every pirate ship. Roger, is an obedient pirate who troubles the other pirates on board. He is also not a part of any major activities. What did Roger do to make everyone in the ship happy? Falls the remaining story.

Suitable for: Below 6.

Author: Brett Helquist.

Publisher: Balzer + Bray.

Pirates Lullaby is a cute little father-son book. Ned agrees to sleep when his father agrees to tell him a story. But Ned was not sleepy. Meanwhile, his father will go to sleep before Ned. What did little Ned do in the ship after his father slept?

Suitable for: Below 6.

Author: Marcie Wessels.

Publisher: Doubleday Books.

Pirate Mom is a super fun book to read for both moms and kids. This is the story of a mom who gets hypnotized into thinking that she is a pirate. It's always fun when kids have to be the adult in a situation, and author Deborah successfully created that.

Suitable for: Below 6.

Author: Deborah Underwood.

Publisher: Random House Books.

TALK LIKE A PIRATE

Ahoy or Aye? How to say hello like a Pirate? Would you like to learn how Pirates talk? We hear you :-). Here're some fun words from Pirate Land for you.

Ahoy! - Hello

Aye! - Yes

Booty - Treasure

Matey - Shipmate or friend

Hearties - Friends

Avast! - Stop

Blimey! - Something to say when frustrated

Savvy? - Do you understand?

Shiver me timbers! - Something to say when you are surprised

Yo-ho-ho - Something to say when happy

Ye - You

Bilge - Bottom of the ship

Fore - Front of the ship

Port - Left side of the ship

Starboard - Right side of the ship

Buccaneer - Another name for pirate

Lad - Young man

Lass - Young woman

Scallywag - Someone you don't trust

Shanty - Song

Cutlass - Pirate's sword

Doubloons - Gold coins

Jolly Roger - The flag of a pirate ship

Hornswaggle - Cheat someone

Marooned - To get stuck on a desert island

Weigh Anchor - Get the ship ready to sail

THE PIRATE CROSSWORD

Now that we have learnt how do Pirates speak, do we try some Pirate crossword too? So, here is a puzzle for you to solve. Hint - The words are from the Pirate dictionary that we gave you on page 4. Try it out and don't forget to mail your answer to underthatguavatree@gmail.com. We will be publishing the answers on our site in the 1st week of June 2019.

Name: _____

Complete the crossword puzzle below

(c)Kiddingly

Across

- 2. Young Man
- 3. Young Woman
- 6. Stuck on an island
- 8. Friend
- 9. Hello

Down

- 1. Damn
- 4. Song
- 5. Gems
- 7. Understood
- 9. Yes

Art with Pirate theme? Now what do we call that?

How about "Pir-Art"?

Sounds good? Awesome! So let's try some Pir-Arts.

Sharing some diy bookmark ideas for you to try. In case you love coloring, we are also sharing few sheets for you. Just print these and fill them up with your favorite colours. Hey don't forget to mail us your "Pir-Art" at underthatguavatree@gmail.com

There's nothing like a good book, Matey!

There is more treasure in books, than in all the pirate's loot on Treasure Island

DIY Bookmarks

Draw & paint bookmark of your choice.

Recommended size for cutting paper to create a bookmark:

2" x 7" or 3" x 8"

STEP BY STEP TUTORIAL TO DRAW A PIRATE

Would you like to learn on how to draw a pirate of your own? Here're step by step instructions to draw your favorite girl or boy pirate. Go ahead and give these a try and don't forget to mail us your version of Pirates to underthatguavatree@gmail.com

(c)Kiddingly

(c)Kiddingly

(c)Kiddingly

(c)Kiddingly

Color this Pirate Land with your favorite colors

WRITING PROMPT

Done with reading some Pirate stories? How about writing your own story using some of those fun words. Here is a writing prompt for you, we would love to see how you shape up a story using these lines.

THE DAY I MET A PIRATE

I was on a cruise with my family and suddenly I saw a ship that looked very different from anything that I had seen till now. There were loud music, red flags and some people with hats dancing all around.

Name:

Age:

Handwriting practice lines consisting of 10 rows of dashed lines for writing.

READER'S NOOK

You know nothing makes us more excited than receiving stories or creative masterpieces by our readers and little readers. Presenting to you a story written by Tejaswi who is not so little anymore :-) but still lives in the wonderland of Doremon and Shinchon. She loves to read comic books and write stories for children.

The Good Pirate

The first day of Summer vacation, John's mother started packing for his trip to Albany where John's grandparents live. She packed everything required for his 5-day long trip especially donuts in his food and drinks box. Little John loved donuts and he has a habit of eating at least one donut in a day. If he didn't get a donut, he cries so much that no one could handle it except his mother.

Box 1: Clothes and accessories.

Box 2: Food and Drinks.

Box 3: Gifts for his friends and Grandparents.

Box 4: Books and Stationary.

The ship started early morning and John accompanied his uncle & aunt Chris on their way to Albany. The ship started sailing, little John was already missing his mom. After an hour while John and Uncle Chris are enjoying the view, they heard a sound on the other side of the ship, they reached there immediately and were shocked to see a gang of pirates in a ship. Within no time, pirates entered John's ship and started robbing. While they were busy gathering things, a mouse started running behind one of the pirates. John who was basically a naughty kid tried to catch the mouse and in the process of catching it he made the pirate and Mr.Chris fell on the floor. "Ouch"! Screamed the pirate. And Mr.Chris's navigator fell into the water.

Irritated with John's act, the pirate threw the food and drinks box he was holding onto their ship with force. But the box sunk into the water instead of landing on the other ship. Suddenly John saw some blood on the floor and he realized Pirate's leg was bleeding. The Pirate was angry, very angry with John. John was scared but he still took the handkerchief out from his pocket and handed it to the pirate. The Pirate gave him an angry gaze but took the handkerchief and tied it tightly around his leg. After sometime, the bleeding stopped. The pirate had come to steal and rob the people on the ship but now he was left with no energy to even walk or do anything.

Few hours passed, and it was time for John's daily dose of Donut. They found some leftover food in the ship which all of them had. After finishing his dinner, John started asking everyone in the ship for a Donut. They couldn't find one on the ship. The donuts box had sunk into the sea long back. Everyone was sacred to mention that the pirate threw the boxes in the water. After searching a lot for long, John started crying. The Pirate was confused, how can someone cry so much for a donut!

But John replied through his tears that he loved Donuts a lot and he liked to eat one everyday. He wants his donuts now! He asked the pirate innocently, "what mistake the donut had done that the pirate threw it in the water". His crying got louder and louder as he wanted his DONUUUUUT!

Unbelievable! The pirate shook his head in dismay. He still couldn't believe that someone can love donuts so much. To add to that he was surprised as well as impressed with John's courage of questioning the Pirate back. The Pirate tried to get up but his leg hurt. And then he spotted the handkerchief tied on his leg which was of John. He smiled and told John - "Ahoy Matey! I am impressed with you lad. You are brave and you question things back. I will give you some donuts that are there on my ship. Thank you for helping me with my pain."

John jumped out of joy as he was going to get his favorite donuts. At the same time he was surprised at the Pirate's gesture. He couldn't believe that Pirates could be good souls too.

THANK YE MATEY!

Hope you liked the Pirate special edition by Kiddingly. As always, we would love to hear your feedback or see your creative masterpieces. Please drop us a line or share your work with us at underthatguavatree@gmail.com.

- Love,
Kiddingly

